

Albert the Valiant Arrives : Scholastic Football : Hanging Washington : Wrecked Locomotive

A TORY DREAM comes true—General Washington about to be swung aloft in the shadow of the old State House. The bronze statue of the "Father of His Country," removed during the Twenty-eighth Division parade, is again back on its pedestal in front of Independence Hall.

ALBERT, KING OF THE BELGIANS; Queen Elizabeth and Crown Prince Leopold on the bridge of the U. S. naval transport George Washington arriving in New York harbor. The warrior king is the first reigning monarch of Europe to set foot on American soil.

HIGH, PREP AND ACADEMIC school elevens kick off today, beginning their attack on the scholastic football schedule for the 1919 season. In the view Daddy, of Central High, is carrying the ball in a practice scrimmage with the scrub.

LUTHER BURBANK, horticultural wizard, who has put out over four hundred varieties of vegetables, flowers and plants. He is now engaged on a new variety of tomato at his California farm.

PREMIER LLOYD GEORGE and a member of his cabinet, Winston Churchill. A labor deputation began a conference with the premier and other cabinet ministers regarding the rail strike.

THE BEAUTY CORNER

MISS RUTH I. MENCH, 525 South Eighth street, Camden, N. J. Photographs for this back-page feature should be submitted through the mail, addressed to the Beauty Corner, EVENING PUBLIC LEDGER.

GENERAL MANGIN, of France, generalissimo of the allied armies of occupation at Cologne, Germany, saluting the English troops as they march past in review.

POWERFUL WRECK DERRICK lifting the overturned locomotive of the Chicago-New York Limited from the Main Line roadbed near Paoli. The flying engine crashed into a freight wreck which had piled up across the passenger tracks.